

Jolly Tars in Uniform Welcomed in New York; Courtesies in Theaters

No Trouble Whatever in Securing Best Seats
in Broadway
House.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—A thorough and comprehensive investigation into the matter of the treatment of the tars in the theaters of New York, shows conclusively that New York cannot be included among those cities which have or may incur the wrath of the President through lack of respect shown to the nation's defenders by places of amusement.

Thomas Jefferson Williams and Martin Clark, of the Alabama, in the blue blouse and flowing trousers of the Navy, accompanied by a reporter, visited the Metropolitan Opera House and fifteen first-class theaters on Broadway and Forty-second street, in order to ascertain the courtesies applied at the box-office and asked for orchestra seats. Not once were they refused. At the Metropolitan and four theaters which have been playing to crowded houses for weeks they were told that seats were all sold for the night, but were offered orchestra seats for the first night, for which seats had not been exhausted by the advance sale.

Not Welcome at Sharkey's.
Strange and almost paradoxical as it may seem the only place of amusement on the island of Manhattan where the tars were not welcome last night was the back room of 14th Street's saloon on Fourteenth street.

The ex-sailor pugilist, who is esteemed by seamen the world over as the greatest man who ever walked a deck or bit of half a pier eating tobacco for a smoke, has an inflexible rule which prohibits the tars in working attire from invading the saloon directly in the rear of his bar. The great ex-sailor himself had a great excuse for this discrimination against the men of his old calling.

Were Shown Every Courtesy.
When Williams and Clark, the two tars who were making the test, reached the Metropolitan Opera House at 5:30 p. m., a line numbering a hundred persons waiting for a chance to secure standing room had formed at the entrance. The tars were told that all the seats for the night were sold, but that they could have as many orchestra seats as they wished for Saturday night.

At no box office on Broadway or Forty-second street did the attendant exhibit the slightest hesitation about accepting the tars' money, even though it was a single smoke town like New York.

The ticket speculators in front of play houses where some of the more popular plays are running demonstrated that they are the most democratic people in the world. They often begged the sailors to purchase at prices which would cause them great pecuniary loss.

Puts Blame on Sailors.
A quartermaster on the Alabama defined New York's standing among the sailor men who make this port.

"This is about the worst place," he said. "When a bunch of the lads find that they can't get into a place, it's usually because another place has been full some time before, but put the place on the bum. When sailors make port and get shore leave after a long cruise they are like a lot of boarding school boys on a vacation. They are outcrops and they don't care who knows how bad they are. They get afraid of themselves before they get back to the ship, they are here. Only in New York town, like Newport and Norfolk and Portland make a practice of keeping the sailors out of the dance halls and theaters when they are in uniform. The rest of them treat the men all right as long as they stay sober. New York is the best of the bunch. They take more off of a boy in uniform than they will a civilian. We never have any trouble here."

Williams and Clark after tacking up and down Broadway, finally dropped anchor in Weber's music hall, where they saw "Twiddle Twiddle" from orchestra seats.

Memorials Prepared for Presentation to Coming Session of Congress.

An earnest appeal for the restoration of the canteen in the army will be made to Congress by the Washington branch of the United Spanish War Veterans, commanded by Capt. J. Walter Mitchell.

At a meeting of the Fourth Immune Camp, U. S. W. V., last night Department Commander Mitchell, Commander Daniel Eberly and every member of the organization signed a memorial to Congress, asking that the canteen be re-established in army posts, and giving reasons for their request.

It is understood that similar action will be taken by all the other camps in the Department of the District.

BRYAN'S SPANISH VETS
WILL RECEIVE BACK PAY

The members of the Third Nebraska Volunteers, Col. William J. Bryan's regiment in the Spanish American war, according to the ruling of the Auditor of the War Department, will receive pay for the time between the date of their reporting for duty and of their being mustered into the service. Under this decision $25,240 will be distributed among the members of the regiment.

In addition to this amount, the claim of $5,000 for the officers of the regiment will also undoubtedly be allowed by the War Department.

ENJOYABLE SMOKER HELD BY NATIONAL LAW JUNIORS

The first smoker of the junior class of the National Law School was held last night at Brown's, 810 Tenth street, with President Hawkins, of the class, in the chair. The affair was an informal one and altogether enjoyable. The smoker was opened with an address by the president, his theme being the promotion of good fellowship. The speaker, as toastmaster, made a short address, his subject being "The Reason Why Students Are Attending the Law School."

"SAILOR" SHARKEY'S EDICT

"This rule of mine ain't iron-clad, see!
"There ain't a bloke in New York that the jacks look to as a real friend like little Mr. Me. I'm friendly with the whole bunch. But they ust to get in the back room and rough house so terrible that some of the actresses who was in the habit of droppin' in for a glass of beer was frightened away for weeks.

"A sober tar can always get back and stay as long as he behaves himself. I always tell the polluted ones that uniforms are barred."

CARMODY VERY ILL; BUT WILL RECOVER

Family Physician Gives
Statement on Colonel's Condition.

VARIOUS RUMORS DENIED

Illness Not Due to Worry or to Nervous Disorder, Says
Doctor.

"Col. Francis J. Carmody is very ill, but every indication is that he will recover. He is suffering from a severe heart and lung complication."

This statement was given to the Times today by Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Colonel Carmody's physician, it being the opinion of the Carmody family that the various sensational reports that have been printed regarding the colonel's health should be denied and answered in an authoritative manner.

"His condition," said Dr. Johnson, "is the result of his having persisted in doing an immense amount of work while he was suffering from a severe cold in New York. His illness is not at all due to any worry or nervous disorder."

It was learned today that Colonel Carmody came to this city from New York on November 16, and that he was seriously ill as soon as he arrived. Since that time he has been continuing under the care of Dr. Johnson.

The report printed this morning that there was a consultation of physicians regarding Colonel Carmody's condition yesterday is erroneous. It is also untrue that the Carmody family has been told to expect the worst outcome of the case.

Colonel Carmody's wife, Senator Platt's stepdaughter, has not come to the city. It was said today that the family here had tried to keep his illness a secret from everyone.

LODGE CONTINUES WORK FOR TARIFF REDUCTION

As chairman of the Committee on the Philippines Senator Lodge will make a determined effort at the approaching session to secure favorable action on the bill to reduce the tariff on imports from the archipelago.

Last session the committee refused to report it, through a combination of Republicans with the Democrats.

Senator Lodge believes that he will be more successful this year, even if it is necessary to make some modifications in the bill.

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT.

The man with the figures tells us that in fifty years this country will have 200,000,000 population, and he wants to know what will happen. As we will not be here we are determined not to worry about it. Our ancestors not only killed but ate each other. Possibly in the remote future the old custom will become fashionable. We recall that in early life we met up with one or two people we thought plenty sweet enough to eat. The fact that this hereditary appetite now has dormant is no sign that it will not break out again at some future time and become quite popular.

SLEEP WALKING

Dangerous Habit Overcome by Change of Food.

The causes of sleep walking are various, but the sleep walker always has a disturbed nervous system.

Often improper food, by causing indigestion and thereby poisoning the nervous through the stomach, is a cause of this trouble.

"My daughter for five years was troubled with indigestion which resulted in extreme nervousness," writes an Indiana mother. "She would eat heartily of meat, vegetables and pastry for a time, and then become sluggish, lose her appetite, and get so nervous she could not attend to her school work. On such occasions the family doctor would call and give her medicine a time, but it never did any good. It was not until she was a while, only to have the old trouble come back in three or four weeks.

"She would walk in her sleep sometimes when her nerves were greatly disturbed by indigestion.

Leader Sanford and Thirty Followers Believed to Have Perished.

BOSTON, Nov. 29.—It is feared that the Kingdom, carrying the Rev. Frank W. Sanford and thirty of his followers in the Holy Ghost and U. S. Society from Boston to Palestine, has foundered.

At the headquarters here, the sect, the elder in charge, Mr. Spence, denied the report, and said that he had received word from some of the party in Joppa. He would not say who had written, and would not give dates.

With Sanford are some of the most prominent of his followers, including Charles E. Holland, who, Sanford says, is Moses reincarnated, and who does not deny the charges. Mrs. Sanford and her son, John, called by Sanford and his people, John the Baptist.

IEWS OF OLLIE JAMES ON TROOPS' DISCHARGE

"The President did exactly right in discharging the colored troops implicated in the Brownsville, Tex., trouble, and I hope he will have the backbone to adhere to his first decision," said Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky, at the Riggs House today.

Representative Jones is one of the big men in the House, and he never hesitates to express his opinion on any public question.

"Some politicians," said he, "would make political capital out of the Brownsville tragedy and the discharge of the colored troops, but the thinking people of the country are with the President in the stand he has taken."

To restore the colored troops would be the worst possible injury that could be inflicted on the colored people.
